Now all you young Yeshivah boys, kindly gather around
I got a little something I must say
You know the way this world is going thing are looking pretty rough
And getting to be Jewish every day
Now pretty soon the time will come when you will want a wife
Well it's risky you can either win or lose
So listen to my song son it's got good advice
Pick a Frum girl, she's the one to choose.

Frum wives are better mothers better than all others
Frum wives are better ladies any day
Frum wives will cook you Kosher and that's something you should know sir
Frum wives will stick beside you all the way.

Now I couldn't help but overhear
A young guy about eighteen
he was talking to his friends about this girl
She had him hoodwinked, blind and dazzled by all her pretty looks
And by him she was the best thing in this world.
So I asked him quite politely
If he'd mind If I butted in it was something in his words that wasn't right
And sure enough he told me what I didn't want to hear
He knew nothing about this young thing's Yiddishkeit.

(Frum wives...)

Now all you young religious girls this part is just for you
The future of our people is in your hands
Yeah there's nothing in this world that can top a Torah wife
And that's the way to get yourself a Torah man
